Brian Wright introduces the season:

First, an announcement: After 37 seasons, I've decided that this upcoming 2026-27 season will be my last as MSO's Music Director and Conductor. I've had a wonderful time, and I must say that back in 1990, beginning to conduct MSO saved my musical life, which had got into a rut, too much focussed on choral music. However, as I reach 80 later in 2026, I find it all much more physically demanding, together with the hassle of driving on mostly rural roads for up to 3 hours to attend each rehearsal and concert. I believe I'll leave MSO in rude health, wish the players, administrators and my successor all the best, and look forward enormously to my last season.

It's an exciting one, with five splendid young international soloists playing popular concertos. We've a French violinist, Irène Duval, with Bruch, a French oboist, Armand Djikoloum, with Richard Strauss, a Lithuanian pianist, Kasparas Mikužis, with Tchaikovsky, a Scottish-Indian guitarist, Samrat Majumder, with Rodrigo, and our own star violinist, Callum Smart, appropriately with Elgar.

MSO plays brilliant symphonies by Dvořák, Rachmaninov and Mahler, and in March we've Beethoven's "Eroica" to commemorate - almost to the day - the 200th anniversary of his death. Our "Family Concert" in November - unusually on a Sunday afternoon - features popular suites by Bizet, Grieg and Tchaikovsky. And there are great overtures and incidental pieces by Borodin, Glinka, Wagner, Mozart and Smetana.

As ever, enjoy it all and buy lots of tickets..!

Saturday
24 October 2026
at 7.30pm
Irène Duval
violin

Borodin - Overture, Prince Igor
Glinka - Kamarinskaya
Bruch - Violin Concerto No. 1
Dvořák - Symphony No. 9
"From the New World"

We've plenty of favourites to start our season. Borodin's Prince Igor Overture makes a powerful introduction to the operatic story of his struggles against invading forces. Glinka's particularly interesting Kamarinskaya became famous as the first orchestral work based solely on Russian folk song. Tchaikovsky believed it embodied the core of the entire school of Russian symphonic music, "just as the whole oak is in the acorn," he wrote. We then welcome Irène Duval to play Bruch's brilliant 1st Violin Concerto. And finally there's Dvořák's ever-popular New World Symphony.

Sunday
29 November 2026
at 3pm*
Samrat Majumder guitar

A Family Concert!

Bizet - Carmen Suite No. 1
Rodrigo - Concierto de Aranjuez
(Guitar Concerto)
Grieg - Peer Gynt Suite No. 1
Tchaikovsky - Nutcracker Suite No. 1

Please note this is a Sunday afternoon concert starting at 3pm*

There's plenty here for all ages to enjoy. Bizet's Carmen Suite ends with the famous "March of the Toreadors". Rodrigo's Guitar Concerto is increasingly popular, with its haunting slow movement and ebullient Spanish rhythms. We welcome a young prize-winning guitarist, Samrat Majumder, to play it. Grieg's Peer Gynt Suite begins with the tender sounds of "Morning", but ends with a flourish "In the hall of the mountain king". Tchaikovsky's Nutcracker Suite has all the best-known bits of the ballet, including "Dance of the Sugar-Plum Fairy" and "Waltz of the Flowers".

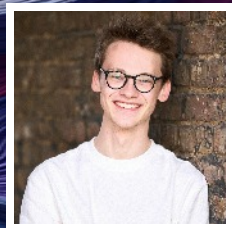

Saturday
30 January 2027
at 7.30pm
Armand Dijkoloum
oboe

Wagner - Prelude, Act 3, Lohengrin
Richard Strauss - Oboe Concerto
Rachmaninov - Symphony No. 2

We've a whizz-bang start to this concert courtesy of Wagner and his effervescent Prelude to Act 3 of Lohengrin. There's then a big change of mood for Richard Strauss' beautiful Oboe Concerto, with its chamber music and pastoral feel. Written in 1945, it was one of the last works he composed, aged 81, during what is often described by biographers as his "Indian summer." Rachmaninov's Second Symphony has everything, with its lush, romantic tunes and big-scale orchestration. The manuscript was lost, but it finally re-emerged and was auctioned in 2014 for over £1.2 million.

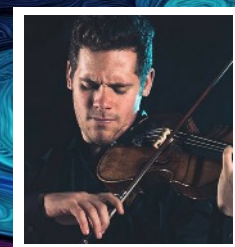

Saturday
20 March 2027
at 7.30pm
Kasparas Mikužis
piano

Mozart - Overture, The Magic Flute
Tchaikovsky - Piano Concerto No. 1
Beethoven - Symphony No.3 "Eroica"

Mozart is the key here. He was Tchaikovsky's favourite composer and a great influence on Beethoven. The Magic Flute overture is one of Mozart's finest, and we then welcome an outstanding young Lithuanian pianist to play Tchaikovsky's much-loved First Piano Concerto. Beethoven died on 26 March 1827, so our concert is within days of the 200th anniversary. His Eroica Symphony is one of his greatest with its magnificent slow movement Funeral March and exciting scherzo and finale.

Saturday
15 May 2027
at 7.30pm
Callum Smart
violin

Smetana - Overture, The Bartered Bride
Elgar - Violin Concerto
Mahler - Symphony No.1 "Titan"

We've two masterworks to end our season, but we start with one of the most vivacious of romantic overtures, Smetana's The Bartered Bride. It's a joy to welcome Callum Smart back to MSO. It's almost a musical family, as his first ever violin teacher is now our renowned Leader, Andy Laing. Elgar wrote of his Violin Concerto: "It's good! Too emotional, but I love it." Mahler conducted more performances of his First Symphony than any of his later works, and he used a very large orchestra, capable of great panache and fire.

The Orchestra:

Under the direction of its acclaimed and popular conductor, Brian Wright, Maidstone Symphony Orchestra is regarded as one of the UK's finest "community" orchestras. It was formed in 1910 as Maidstone Orchestral Society, still the title of the concert promoting organisation. Today MSO is a superbly well-balanced mix of local professionals and ex-professionals, music teachers and excellent amateur players who come together regularly on a voluntary basis to perform concerts of a professional standard. This entails great commitment by the players, many of whom travel from all over Kent, and beyond, to attend MSO's weekly Thursday evening rehearsals.

The Audience:

Join the Club! Season Ticket holders become Members of Maidstone Orchestral Society, with full voting rights at the AGM. The MOS organising committee includes both player and audience members.

The Friends:

The Friends of Maidstone Orchestral Society are the orchestra's financial lifeline. Please join them for a modest annual subscription and pledge your extra support to MSO. For further information email secretary@mso.org.uk
